

Participation

Jungmun Saekdal Beach is the northern limit spawning ground for the loggerhead turtle and for locals this means the beach is a place of new life, health and longevity. Don't miss your chance to join in as locals dive into the seas and wish for health in the year ahead.

Open to everyone in good health

Fee: Free

Application: Call(064-760-3320) and fax(064-739-9201) in advance

- * On-site application is available on the day
- * Booths will be provided to groups over 20 (apply by Dec 28)

Guidelines

- This is not a competition or ranking event. It is purely for fun and to mark the New Year by diving into the cold winter sea. Participants are responsible for their own safety.
- Maritime Police and emergency services will be present.
- The host and organizers are not responsible for any accidents that occur.
- The event will be photographed with images used for online promotions and brochures.
